

CONSERVATION FOUNDATION OF DICKINSON COUNTY

The Conservation Foundation of Dickinson County is an independent, non-profit organization whose purpose includes charitable, educational, preservation and scientific endeavors which benefit and support conservation activities in Dickinson County.

By becoming a member of the CFDC, you can help support:

- Dickinson County Nature Center programming
- Building projects, such as Pollinator Paradise
- New exhibits
- County park improvements
- Public land acquisition projects
- Reestablishment of wildlife habitats and native species

“to encourage environmental awareness among visitors and residents while fostering appreciation, preservation and conservation of the Iowa Great Lakes region’s unique cultural history, glacial geological functions, native species and natural habitats through education and action.”

The CFDC raises funds through special events, donations, the Nature Store at the Dickinson County Nature Center, and most importantly, memberships.

As a member, you receive:

- Access to annual membership appreciation events for families.
- A 10 percent discount in the Nature Store.
- A $10 discount on youth summer camps.
- A $3 discount on OkobojiOutdoors T-shirts.
- Periodic updates about the CFDC and Dickinson County Conservation Board.
